What is the North American Refugee Health Conference?

In its 11th year, the North American Refugee Health Conference (NARHC) will grow to 700+ healthcare providers, policy makers, public health specialists, researchers, social workers and ancillary medical personnel representing leading national organizations from major cities across the US.

The NARHC is recognized as the leading conference for healthcare and other professionals working with refugee populations, and is the world’s largest clinical refugee health conference. It alternates annually between Canada and US, and 2020's host city will be Cleveland, Ohio.
